HEADMASTER

Barry W. Tull

Dear Members of the Class of 1987,

Each senior class always has its own special characteristics; the class of 1987 is no exception. When I think of you, the seniors of 1987, I will remember the strong feelings you had for each other and the enthusiasm you displayed in class activities. I will recall your sense of humor, which was a delightful part of all you did.

Each of you has made a significant contribution to the total program of Worcester Country School. I am proud of your achievements in the academics, student government, art, drama, music, and sports. It is my hope and expectation that you will continue to go forward by making use of your many talents and abilities.

You have my warmest wishes for a happy and successful future — during your college years and beyond.

Sincerely,

Barry W. Tull

DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

FRANKLIN H. LYNCH

The Development Office has been busy this year with fund raising events for capital improvements. Through the Annual Giving Drive, the 1986 Gala, and the Christmas Bazaar our 1986-87 donations to Worcester Country School surpassed previous years.

With the assistance of many parents and friends, the Gala and the Bazaar were not only successful from a financial viewpoint, but were exciting social events. The 1986 Gala, under the direction of Honorary Chairman William E. Esham, Jr., attracted approximately 400 people at the dinner and auctions. Held again at the Rusty Rudder Restaurant in Dewey Beach, Delaware and hosted by Jay and Audrey Prettyman, the dinner and beverages were delicious. Highlighting the silent auction were jewelry, appliances and entertainment items. In the live event, professional auctioneer Frank Kennedy and his staff from the Stuart Kingston Galleries directed the bidding on over 40 items — including fur coats, oriental rugs, diamond necklaces, ocean cruises, vacation trips, and many many more. The raffle prize of a trip to Disney World was won by Terry Hough.

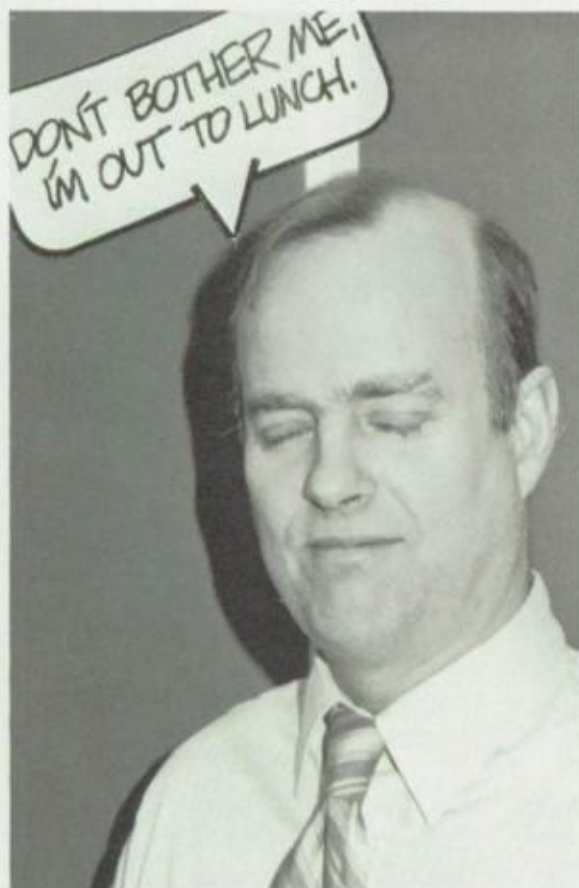

In its second year, the Annual Giving Drive is becoming an important source of income for the school as parents, alumni, and friends realize the need for yearly giving to an independent school such as Worcester Country School. Although only in its preliminary stages, progress of the Annual Giving Drive has been gratifying.

At Worcester Country School, the Alumni Organization is also an important part of the Development Office program. This year, as in most years in the past, on Thanksgiving weekend alumni from the Class of 1973 to the most recent graduates gathered for an exciting get-together with former classmates and the WCS faculty and staff. The alumni, faculty, and staff enjoyed a soccer and volleyball competition and alumni meetings at the school, and an evening social gathering at Fager's Island in Ocean City.

The 1986-87 year in the Development Office has been a productive one. The Board of Trustees, Headmaster, and the Director of Development have sought to create a Development Office which will, on a full-time basis, actively support the school. Its purpose is to provide funds for capital improvement through fund drives, special projects, and fund-raising events.

The 1987 Varsity softball team had a year of rebuilding and preparing for the future. The season record of no wins and 9 losses was not indicative of the valuable experience gained by all the members of the team. Toni LaChance led the team with a .562 batting average. Seniors Tricia Gaffney, Beth Weiss, Laura Tawney, and Shannon Carragher contributed to the team's play. Pleasant surprises were Sarah Savage, who batted .423, played third base, pitched, and won the Coach's Award; and Alysia McCool who inherited the catching duties and maintained a .458 batting average. Tonja Leslie won the Most Valuable Player Award.
